

Annegret Steinmetz

Department of Applied Economics and Management
405 Warren Hall, Cornell University
Ithaca, NY 14853-7801
USA

Phone: +1-607-255-1627
ams322@cornell.edu

EDUCATION

RUPRECHT KARLS UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG, GERMANY
Autumn 1993 to Spring 1995
Undergraduate studies in economics
Vordiplom (Undergraduate Degree), Economics, May 1995

RUPRECHT KARLS UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG, GERMANY
Autumn 1995 to Summer 1998
Graduate studies in economics
Diplom (Graduate Degree), Economics, July 1998

RUPRECHT KARLS UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG, GERMANY
September 1998 to December 2003
Ph.D. student in economics, graduate program of environmental and resource economics
Dr.rer.pol. (Ph.D.), Economics, December 2003
(supervisors: Clive Bell and Till Requate)

FIELDS

Development, Applied Microeconomics, Environmental and Resource Economics

POSITIONS HELD

SOUTHASIA INSTITUT, RUPRECHT KARLS UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG, GERMANY
September 2001 to September 2003
Research and teaching assistant in the department of development economics.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY, USA
since October 2003
Postdoctoral Associate in the department of applied economics and management

HONORS AND AWARDS

Scholarship of the German Research Foundation (DFG), September 1998 to September 2001

WORKING PAPERS

'Informal Groundwater Markets: The Role of Share Contracts'. Manuscript, 2005.

'How Informal Water Markets Function: Empirical Evidence from South India'. Manuscript, 2003.

'Inefficiency of Tenancy Contracts: The Role of Imperfect Monitoring, Cost Sharing, and Crop Composition'. Manuscript, 2005.

'The Effect of Cost Sharing on Input Choice in Sharecropping Contracts: Theory'. Manuscript, 2006.

WORK IN PROGRESS

'Auctioning a Stochastic Supply: How to allocate Surface Water for Irrigation.'

'Do Risk Evasion Strategies lead to a Suboptimal Allocation of Labor Input? Theoretical and Empirical Evidence using the Pakistan Rural Household Survey.'

TEACHING

TAUGHT AS TEACHING ASSISTANT

Introductory Microeconomics (Undergraduate course, University of Heidelberg)

Advanced Microeconomics (Undergraduate course, University of Heidelberg, twice)

TAUGHT AS LECTURER

Applied Economic Development (Undergraduate course, spring 2004 and spring 2005, Cornell University)

Economic Development (Undergraduate course, fall 2005, Cornell University)

FIELD STUDIES

NANGUNERI DISTRICT, TAMIL NADU, INDIA, 01-02.2001

Groundwater contracts in three south Indian villages

OTHER EXPERIENCE

SOCIETE GENERAL D'ALSACE, FRANKFURT, GERMANY

Bank internship, June/July 1993

BHF BANK, FRANKFURT, GERMANY

Bank internship, March/April 1997

CONFERENCE AND SEMINAR PRESENTATIONS

2nd World Congress of Environmental and Resource Economists, Monterey, CA, June 24-27, 2002.

13th World Congress of the International Economic Association, Lisbon, September 9-13, 2002.

'75 Years of Development Research', Cornell University, Ithaca, NY
May 7-9, 2004.

Annual Congress ('Risk and Market Economy') of the Verein für Socialpolitik, Dresden,
September 28 to October 1st, 2004.

Economics Department Seminar, Binghamton University, Binghamton, NY,
November 12, 2004.

Development Workshop, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY,
May 6, 2005.